1. Faculty Exchange Programs:
   - Guest lectures, special talks, and expert series delivered by faculty members of both institutions.
   - Joint faculty development initiatives, workshops, and seminars on advanced chemical sciences and teaching methodologies.
2. Student Exchange & Engagement:
   - Collaborative study sessions, practical exposure, and interaction programs for undergraduate and postgraduate students.
   - Guidance and mentorship for student research projects, dissertations, and competitive examination preparation.
3. Academic & Research Resources:
   - Sharing of non-confidential academic materials, curriculum insights, and lab practices where applicable.
   - Organization of joint seminars, web-talks, conferences, and chemistry quiz competitions.
4. Instrumentation & Analytical Learning:
   - Familiarization visits for students to demonstrate specialized laboratory apparatus or analytical techniques available at either campus.

3. TERMS & IMPLEMENTATION

- Non-Financial Agreement: This MoU is an academic collaboration and does not involve any financial obligations or commitments from either party. Any specific program or workshop involving costs will be separately planned and mutually agreed upon prior to execution.
- Coordination: Prof. Vishal Pathak and Prof. Manoj Kumar Yadav (or designated faculty representatives from their respective departments) will serve as the primary coordinators to execute activities under this agreement.
- Flexibility: Specific dates, schedules, and topic modules for exchange lectures will be finalized mutually based on academic calendar convenience.

4. DURATION & TERMINATION

- Validity: This MoU shall come into effect on the date of signing and shall remain valid for a period of 3 (Three) Years.
- Renewal: The agreement may be extended or renewed upon mutual written consent of both parties.
- Termination: Either party may terminate this MoU by providing a 30-day written notice to the other party, without affecting any ongoing activity or lecture series already scheduled.
